Properties under consideration for annexation MUST be contiguous to Fire District 1. If they are not, property owners from contiguous properties but not yet in the Fire District must become a party to this annexation request. It is also HIGHLY recommended that multiple properties be presented for annexation from the same area. EACH additional property owner must complete a separate form for this annexation request, and they must all be turned in together to be considered.

Any annexation request will be considered and could take up to three months to research, discuss, and hold a public hearing prior to any potential final approval by the Stevens 1 Board of Fire Commissioners. If approved, the Board approval will be turned over to the Stevens County Auditor to be placed on the official rolls, which could take up to an additional six months. Petitioners will be kept apprised of the timeline.

Please include the following when turning in the application:

1. Copy of recorded deed;
2. Boundary survey or location map of property;
3. Any potential future land use under consideration;
4. Any other pertinent information that you think Fire District 1 should consider.
